8.

On or about February 6, 2014, Defendant RC LAW, drafted, prepared and mailed and/or caused to be drafted, prepared and mailed via its employee, Yaakov Saks, Esq., correspondence on the letterhead of Defendant, RC LAW. A true and correct copy of the February 6, 2014 correspondence is attached hereto as Exhibit “A.”

9.

The February 6, 2014 correspondence states that Yaakov Saks, Esq. represents Co-Defendant, Yaakov Shotkin and purports to be drafted on behalf of Co-Defendant, Yaakov Shotkin. A true and correct copy of the February 6, 2014 correspondence is attached as Exhibit “A.”

10.

The February 6, 2014 correspondence threatens to name Plaintiff(s) and/or makes allegations against Plaintiff(s) intending to cause Plaintiff(s) harm either directly or indirectly for alleged violations of the Fair Debt Collections Practices Act.

11.

The February 6, 2014 correspondence states in relevant part:

“Mr. Shotkin received at least one collection that was deceptively written, and from the language seemed to imply that The Borland law Firm, LLC was collecting and acting as an attorney of law in doing so since the letter was signed Brett Borland, The Borland Law Firm, LLC. Defendant's letter is a violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692(e), as it implies that an attorney was involved in the collection and implicitly any time an attorney is involved in collection, implicitly threatens legal actions.” A true and correct copy of the February 6, 2014 correspondence is attached as Exhibit “A.”

12.

The February 6, 2014 correspondence states in relevant part:

“The letter makes legal threats of which are deceptive and coercive. These legal threats imply that The Borland Law Firm, LLC is acting as an attorney and has the power and ability to bring a legal claim against Mr. Shotkin, when in fact

The Borland Law Finn, LLC is merely a debt collector for a debt they do not own. Any legal claim that is brought would have to be brought by an attorney and authorized only by the creditor. The FDCPA makes it unlawful for a debt collector to use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt. The letter sent to Mr. Shotkin does just that in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692(e).” A true and correct copy of the February 6, 2014 correspondence is attached as Exhibit “A.”

13.

The February 6, 2014 correspondence states that “Mr. Shotkin demands the sum of $5,000.00 for damages, costs, and attorney fees to be paid or appropriate legal action will be taken to recover these costs.” See Exhibit “A”.

14.

The February 6, 2014 letter contains a draft complaint. See Exhibit “A”.

15.

Attached hereto as Exhibit “B” is a true and correct copy of a sample correspondence mailed to Co-Defendant, SHOTKIN.

16.
